Resourcing Solutions for Medical Affairs, Regulatory Affairs and Clinical Development

AXESS has been a key specialist supplier of recruitment services to the Pharmaceutical, Biotechnology and Healthcare industries since 1990.

Finding the right person for your organisation starts with finding the right resource partner for your needs. At AXESS the majority of our consultants have actually worked within the industry – we have all used headhunters and we have all been headhunted. This informs the way that we work and our focus on candidate and client care.
